

ASZK Felid Husbandry Workshop Scholarship Application 2026

7 – 9 OCTOBER MELBOURNE ZOO, VICTORIA

Applications open now and close 15 June 2026

Carnivore & Small Exotic TAG

Felid Husbandry
Advisory Group

ASZK is seeking applications from ASZK current members , and has been an individual member for 6 months or more who would like to attend the Felid Husbandry Workshop in Melbourne and need some financial assistance.

This targeted workshop program addresses key knowledge gaps and brings together leading keynote speakers to share insights from international conservation programs and practical approaches to felid management.

The scholarship covers registration fees and up to $500 travel and accommodation assistance (receipts must be provided).

The recipient will be requested to write a report for thylacinus after the workshop.

Note if you are successful and have already registered the money will be reimbursed.

Please provide the following information:

Name:

Institution:

Email address:

Mobile Phone number:

How long have you been working as a zookeeper?

Has your employer approved your leave for this period?

How will attending the workshop expand or support your professional goals?* Max 500 words

Attach a copy of your CV

Email to eo@aszk.org.au

Note we will check our membership database to substantiate membership status.